

LIGUE DE DÉVELOPPEMENT DU HOCKEY MIDGET AAA DU QUÉBEC INC.

STATEMENT

We, the undersigned, solemnly affirm the following :

I am the father/guardian of : _____

I am the mother/guardian of : _____

We are informed of and are in agreement with the regulations of Hockey Québec and more precisely of the following articles :

2.3 RIGHTS TO THE SERVICES OF A PLAYER

- a) An organization or team must sign the players over whom it has rights. Those rights are awarded due to the fact that the legal domicile of the player is located on the territory of recruiting of the team.
- b) It is the responsibility of each of the leagues to determine the territory of recruiting for each organization or team in order to promote a fair competition between the teams. The territory must be approved before August 31st by the Provincial Board of Administration. It remains in effect as long as a request for modification has not been approved by Hockey Québec.

5.2 LEGAL DOMICILE

5.2.1 For the purpose of the present regulations, the legal domicile shall be:

- a) the usual domicile of the parents, when the parents reside in the same place, or, if one of the parents is deceased, the usual domicile of the surviving parent;
- b) when the parents do not reside in the same place, the usual domicile of the parent who has legal custody of the player;
or
when both parents have legal custody of the player, the usual domicile of the parent with whom the player resides most of the time;
or if the player does not reside with one parent or the other, he can play on the territory of recruiting which covers the location of the usual domicile of one of the parents;
- c) when the legal custody has been awarded to a third person, the usual domicile of that person.
- d) Given a particular family situation, the Board of Administration of a given region can, upon request, submitted before September 1st by a player or in the name of that player, delimit the territory of recruiting of the player. The decision is final and cannot be appealed. No other change will be authorized during the year.

N.B. For the purpose of articles 5.2.1 and 5.2.2, the term « legal custody » refers to the custody of the player, awarded by the court, in one of the following cases :

- a) in application of the Divorce Act (judgment of the Superior Court);
- b) in the case of a separation of property (judgment of the Superior Court);
- c) following the loss of parental authority (judgment of the Superior Court);
- d) for compromising the development of the child (Juvenile Court);
- e) in the event that both (2) parents are deceased (judgment of the Superior Court).

Pursuant to the articles 2.3 and 5.2, we declare that the above-mentioned player has, on the date of his signature and will have on July 1, his legal domicile at the following address:

N.B: When a change of address is planned for July 1, it is the responsibility of the MIDGET AAA TEAM, of his current residence of the player concerned, to transmit to the parents the coordinates of the person in charge for the MIDGET AAA TEAM of his future residence on July 1, and advises the new organisation of the change.

CHANGE TO THE STATEMENT

We agree to inform the organization, or team, of any change to the statement, at the moment the change is made.
Any change to this statement requires the signatories to sign a new statement.

FALSE STATEMENT

Any false statement will have the following consequences:

- a) the player will no longer be allowed to play for the organization, or team, affected by the false statement;
- b) the player may be suspended for a period not exceeding one year.
